

Personals and Locals.

- Frosty.
- Foot-ball.
- The campus is beautiful.
- Study—the order of the day.
- The mastodon attracts many visitors.
- Mary Scott's parents visited her on the 11th.
- Nathan Pickett has joined the Day-dodgers.
- Earnest Bowles, of Toronto, Ohio, has entered college.
- C. E. Kelsey spent Sunday with friends at Fountain City.
- Miriam Wilson is pursuing work in the Art department.
- Whyfore are the Freshmen and Junior girls meeting so much?
- Howard Smith visited his sister, Miss Edith, Saturday and Sunday.
- Grace Maddock was made happy by a visit from her father last week.
- Misses Alice and Mae Thomas called on Margaret Moon Saturday.
- Mabel and Carl Bowen spent Sunday at Lynn, making home happy.
- William Wilson visited his daughters, Elizabeth and Louise, on the 16th.
- The Lindley hall electric bell seems under unusual excitement this week.
- Phoenix has finally gotten last year's business manager's report accepted.
- Charles L. Jessup and wife have charge of the Friends' Church at Danville, Ind.
- Rev. S. C. Mills and wife have moved from New Castle, and now reside on Central avenue.
- Theodate Wilson has decided to start to Chicago soon, to take work in the Moody Institute.
- Elvin Hadley, who was unable to join the 98's on account of poor health, is gradually improving.
- One hospitable young lady invited the professor to "come," in response to her name at roll call.
- Frank White spent Saturday and Sunday, the 19th and 20th, with friends and relatives at Spiceland.
- Prof. Morgan has been sick since our last issue. He was unable to hear his classes for several days.

—Chas. E. Cosand accompanied Howard Stout to his home and made a short visit with his home people.

—The girls' double quartette have named themselves the G Clefs, and have adopted blue and gold as their colors.

—The day of prayer for the students' volunteer movement was observed by the Christian Association last Sabbath.

—Mrs. Finley entertained the members of the Ladies' Glee Club on the evening of the 23d, after the Chapin entertainment.

—Alvin Rush is making up some deficiencies at Fairmount Academy this year. He will join the Junior class next year.

—Ruth Burchenal has not been in school this term on account of the illness of her father, but will enter later in the year.

—Mellie Palmer has been bravely enduring the pain and inconveniences of a dislocated shoulder for the past few weeks.

—Oakie Andrews has arrived to begin work in the studio. The college, as well as Professor Bundy, welcomes her back.

—Lucy Gilbert and Christine Rogers spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here and attended part of the Convention.

—Laura Newlin won the diamond medal in the State Demorest Oratorical Contest at Vincennes, on the evening of Oct. 4.

—Misses Elizabeth Schneider and Ione Marshall have joined the Senior class and will complete the course in music this year.

—Misses Kessler and Mitchell are the possessors of a barrel of the best apples in Earlham's cellar; their opposites can so testify.

—Phoenix had her patriotism stirred up two weeks ago by one of Floy Rhode's characteristic, good never-even-stop-for-a-breath speeches.

—One of the pleasant surprises of the week was the delightful serenade given the boys by West Earlham. They are always welcome.

—Misses Nellie and Celia Wood, and Gertrude Simmons, gave a very enjoyable entertainment at Centerville on the evening of Oct. 19.

—Many of the students took advantage of the adjournment of college, on Friday of the Convention, and spent the latter part of the week at their homes.