RODNEY and JOAN MORRIS

Rodney Morris is a member of Poplar Ridge Meeting in New York Yearly Meeting. He studied at Earlham College for one year and did a year's work in the Agronomy Department at Cornell University. He has done considerable practical agricultural work on farms and in summer employment at Cornell.

Joan Morris graduated from Cornell with a Bachelor of Science degree. Her major was Home Economics. She has had experience as a kindergarten teacher, a playground supervisor and a camp counselor.

Both Rodney and Joan attended the Kennedy School of Missions for one semester in 1955. They arrived at Kaimosi in August, 1955. Rodney is to serve for two years in the agricultural department of Friends Africa Mission. This work will be accepted by the United States Government as his alternative service.
