

TENNESSEE

HOMER and FLORENCE BIDDLECUM

Homer Biddlecum is well known among Friends in Wilmington, Kansas, Iowa and Indiana Yearly Meetings, where he has done faithful and continuous pastoral work since he was recorded as a minister by Wilmington Yearly Meeting in 1913.

In 1956 he answered a call to pastoral service in the Rafter Chapel and Three Points Meetings in Monroe County, Tennessee.

In 1960 Homer married Florence Riley of Traverse City, Michigan, and since that time she has been a faithful co-worker in the two meetings under his care. Homer and Florence live in the parsonage at Rafter.